PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Walking Together:

Jesus Appears to Us

Throughout the Easter season, we hear and meditate on the readings from the Gospels that tell of our Lord Jesus' appearances to His disciples after His resurrection from the dead. In addition to appearing to all of His disciples gathered together, the risen Christ appeared specifically to Mary Magdalene, Thomas, and Cleopas and his unknown companion on the road to Emmaus. All of these appearances had two very important characteristics: they were real physical appearances of the risen Christ, and, by His appearing, Jesus strengthened the faith of His disciples who were beaten down in sorrow and fear.

Jesus does the same thing for all of us today. Jesus shows up for us with His real physical presence, and when He does so, Jesus strengthens our faith. For the past months, we have been walking together through the flow of the Divine Service, and this month we come to the Service of the Sacrament of the Altar. It is here in this Sacrament that our Lord Jesus comes to us fully and completely with His body and His blood in, with, and under the bread and wine of His Supper.

Jesus comes to us in this way because we need Him. He comes to us physically, because we, like the disciples need His real presence in our lives. For we, too, suffer sadness, pain, doubt, and fear. There is so much in this world and in our personal lives that grieves us and beats us down. Left to ourselves, we would suffer despair. But, brothers and sisters, our Lord Jesus does not leave us to ourselves. Instead, He comes to us, lifts us up, graces us with His real presence, and gives us again His gracious embodied promise: Here I am, touch Me, see that I am risen for You. Take, eat; this is My body given for you. Take, drink; this is My blood shed for you, for the forgiveness of your sins and the strengthening of your faith." continued . . .

Jesus comes for you. Jesus shows up for you. Jesus appears personally for you in the Sacrament of the Altar. Come, share His feast. Come receive His presence, His forgiveness, His life, and His salvation, for you!

I close my letter this month with three stanzas of one of my favorite communion hymns. I pray it will bless your faith as you read it and bring to you a longing to meet your Lord's appearing in the Sacrament of His body and blood.

Your Pastor,
Joshua Miller

“Soul, adorn yourself with gladness,
Leave the gloomy haunts of sadness,
Come into the daylight's splendor,
There with joy your praises render.
Bless the One whose grace unbounded
This amazing banquet founded;
He, though heav'nly, high, and holy,
Deigns to dwell with you most lowly.

Hasten as a bride to meet Him,
And with loving rev'ence greet Him.
For with words of life immortal
He is knocking at your portal.
Open wide the gates before Him,
Saying, as you there adore Him:
Grant, Lord, that I now receive You,
That I nevermore will leave You.

He who craves a precious treasure
Neither cost nor pain will measure;
But the priceless gifts of heaven
God to us has freely given.
Though the wealth of earth were proffered,
None could buy the gifts here offered:
Christ's true body, for you riven,
And His blood, for you once given.”

which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.*

Ephesians 2:10

PREPARING FOR WORSHIP

Sunday, May 1

Acts 9:1-22

Saul sets out to persecute disciples of the Lord.
On the road he is blinded; then through Ananias his sight is restored.
Filled with the Holy Spirit he begins to proclaim Jesus as the Son of God.

Revelation 5

The seer portrays a vision of cosmic worship, of every creature in heaven and on earth praising God and the Lamb.

John 21: 1-19

The risen Christ appears to his disciples by the sea, welcomes them to a meal of fish and bread, and tells Peter three times, “Feed my sheep.”

Sunday, May 8:

Acts 20:17-35

Paul addresses the Ephesian elders, urging them to remember the work of God and encouraging them to pay careful attention in feeding and caring for the flock.

Revelation 7: 9-17

The seer envisions the ultimate salvation of the righteous through the Lamb who is also the shepherd.
A great multitude from every nation will worship before the throne of God.

John 10: 22-30

Some ask Jesus to tell whether he is the Messiah.
Jesus points to his unity with the Father and to his works.
“My sheep hear my voice; they follow me; I give them eternal life.”

PREPARING FOR WORSHIP

Sunday, May 15

Acts 11: 1-18

Peter explains to the Jewish believers at Jerusalem the vision through which he learned God's purpose to include the Gentiles in the gift of life.

Revelation 21: 1-7

John has a vision of a new heaven and a new earth where God dwells with his people and gives them the water of life.

John 16:12-22

The spirit will declare what the Father has revealed through Christ
And make it clear to the disciples.

Sunday, May 22

Acts 16:9-15

In response to the call "Come over to Macedonia and help us,"
Paul sails from Troas to Greece where he meets Lydia in Philippi.
She receives the Gospel eagerly.

Revelation 21: 9-14, 21-27

John is given a vision of a new Jerusalem come out of heaven from God.
There he sees no temple, for the temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

John 16:23-33

Jesus "going to the Father" will now make plain all his teaching to the disciples, reveal God's love for them, empower their prayer, and offer peace even in persecution.

Sunday, May 29

Acts 1:12-26

The apostles must replace Judas to complete Jesus' symbolic claim on all Israel.
Through their prayer the Lord chooses Matthias, a witness to the resurrection.

Revelation 22: 1-20

The risen Christ promises to come soon, inviting all who are thirsty to take the water of life as a gift.
"Surely I am coming soon."

John 17:20-26

Jesus prays that all those who believe in him may be one.
"As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

ABOUT THE LWML

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML), also called Lutheran Women in Mission, is a national auxiliary organization of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod (LCMS). Though a national auxiliary, it is organized by Districts, Conferences, and Zones, which include individual congregations such as Jehovah. Jehovah is in the Saint Paul Zone, the Capitol Conference, and the Minnesota South District. The mission of the LWML is to "...joyfully proclaim Christ, support missions, and equip women to honor God by serving others."

All women who are members of an LCMS congregation are considered members of LWML/ Lutheran Women in Mission and are warmly invited to participate in whatever way they can. Please watch for invitations and opportunities.

Dear Friends in Christ,

In his letter to the Philippians, St. Paul teaches us to imitate the humility and service of our Lord Jesus by looking not only to our own interests but to the interests of others (Phil. 2:4). This you, the people of God, have done throughout this pandemic. You have inconvenienced yourselves by masking to help protect others from infection with the COVID-19 virus and its variants. As your pastor, I thank you for that. I know it has not been fun to mask, but it has been beneficial to the lives of our neighbors.

Now that the COVID situation in our area has greatly improved, many of you have asked if we can now relax our mask policy. Your church council and I have discussed this at length, and we are all in agreement that the time is right to begin the first steps of rolling back our masking policy at Jehovah.

As of April 17, Easter Sunday, Jehovah Lutheran Church no longer requires masking in most non-worship activities. We no longer require masks to be worn at Bible class (Living by Faith), board and council meetings, volunteering in the church building, or for employees working at Jehovah. In any of these settings, you may certainly continue to wear a mask if you wish, but as of Easter Sunday, masking in these settings is not required.

For the time being, we will continue asking everyone to mask in worship and in children's Sunday school. The reason for this is that our youngest friends have not yet been able to receive vaccination against COVID-19. At present, it appears that this will change soon.

As long as COVID rates continue to be low in our area, we hope and plan to take the next step of making masks optional in worship in the not too distant future. Your lay leadership and I will continue to monitor the situation, and changes to our policies may be made as the circumstances change.

Again, thank you for bearing with one another in the love of Christ during this time.

God's blessings be with you all!

In Christ,
Pastor Joshua Miller

IN OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

Those suffering or recovering from COVID-19, and for wise use of the vaccines.

For peace to prevail in our world. For an end to aggression and fighting between the peoples of Russia and Ukraine. For mutual understanding and dialog rather than violence and threats.

Safety and good health for all students, teachers and staff at schools, including those from this congregation.

For strength to speak out for and protect the lives of the unborn our God has created and compassionate care of all that He has made. For the compassionate support of all mothers of young children who are in need.

For better stewardship of God's creation and strengthening of those whose professional vocation it is to care for the earth.

For President Biden and Vice President Harris as they serve our nation.

For Governor Walz and all in leadership in our state.

Mayor Carter and all in city government.

For our Synodical President Matthew Harrison, our District President Lucas Woodford, and our Circuit Visitor, Steven Bielenberg.

For unity of purpose in the Gospel for our congregation, as we walk together on our roadmap of care and outreach.

For the Mekane Yesus congregation as they call a new pastor.

Special Weekly Prayers:

As we pray for each member and family in our congregation by name, this week we pray for the Wynn family.

LCMS MISSIONARIES ON HOME SERVICE — MAY 1-15

Every other year, The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod's (LCMS) international missionaries spend approximately two months in the United States on "home service." During this time, they reconnect with the individuals, congregations and groups who support their mission work. Home service also gives them a period of rest and renewal and the chance to spend time with their families.

Remember God's work through missionaries on home service as you pray:

- 1. for the LCMS missionary families who will be on home service. Ask the Lord to keep them safe during their travels.
- 2. for God's hand to guide and bless the details and logistical arrangements that are a necessary part of missionary home service, such as transportation and housing.
- 3. for missionary families to be able to visit as many congregations and other groups as possible, while managing their limited time in the United States.
- 4. for the Lord to guide missionaries as they prepare their presentations. Ask Him to help them to share their stories and ministry news with those who have so faithfully supported their ministry.
- 5. for missionary families. Pray that God would give emotional, physical and spiritual strength as they travel, share with supporters and meet new friends.
- 6. for missionary children. Pray that God would provide them with the opportunity to know that they are a vital part of their family's ministry.
- 7. that many congregations all over the United States would welcome missionaries into their churches for mission presentations, Sunday school, children's messages, celebration luncheons, Bible studies and other activities.
- 8. that congregations and other groups would experience a revitalized interest in praying for missionaries and supporting their work, especially after visiting with them face-to-face and hearing about what God is accomplishing through them.
- 9. that as missionaries share their experiences, the listeners would consider serving as a missionary themselves — in a short-term, long-term or career capacity.
- 10. for the families of visiting missionaries, that they would enjoy their time together and mutually encourage one another.
- 11. for God to comfort and sustain the missionaries who are not able to see family and friends in the United States this year. May the Holy Spirit comfort them with His presence and assurance of God's calling to serve far from home.
- 12. that missionaries would have an easy transition back to life in the United States — even for a short time during home service — with minimal effects of reverse culture shock.
- 13. that the Lord would raise up supporters for missionaries who are struggling to finding the resources necessary for their ministry.
- 14. with thanksgiving for the many forms of support and the joys the Lord provides to missionary families as they serve Him.
- 15. that the conversations started during home service would continue long after the missionary has returned to the mission field. Pray that through ongoing communication, missionaries and supporters would encourage one another.

PARTNER CHURCHES — MAY 16-31

The LCMS has 38 partner churches around the world. A partner church is a church body with which the LCMS has full altar and pulpit fellowship. Many LCMS partner churches also are members of the International Lutheran Council, a worldwide association of confessional Lutheran church bodies. Some LCMS partner churches came into existence through LCMS-supported mission efforts, while others have historic roots that pre-date the LCMS or that are sourced in the mission efforts of other Lutheran church bodies.

Remember God's work in His Church as you pray:

16. For all LCMS partner churches, some of which only have a handful of congregations: Pray that they would never feel alone in their service to Christ and His Church.

17. For LCMS partner churches in Latin America and the Caribbean: Pray that God's Word would continue to spread throughout these countries to bring the Body of Christ together in fellowship and to be witnesses to His love.

18. For LCMS partner churches in Africa: Pray that God would strengthen Lutheran Christians in this region to carry out their work for His name's sake.

19. For LCMS partner churches in Asia: that God would guide and strengthen Lutheran Christians in this region, especially in areas where it is difficult or dangerous to do His work.

20. For LCMS partner churches in Eurasia: Pray that God would continue to use His Word as a light to those in darkness and as a stronghold for the life of His Church.

21. With thanksgiving for all the missionaries who serve partner churches, that they would remain faithful in their tasks and be witnesses to the Gospel through acts of mercy.

22. For those who serve in leadership positions in LCMS partner churches around the world, as they guide, nurture and shepherd their people.

23. For the laypeople of LCMS partner churches around the world, that they would be fulfilled by God's Word and Sacraments.

24. that God would continue to raise up faithful servants for His Church in locations around the world:

25. for the Lutheran church bodies around the world interested in fellowship with the LCMS. Pray that God would guide the consideration process according to His will.

26. in thanksgiving for those who pray continually for those who serve where spreading God's Word is difficult or dangerous.

27. for Lutheran churches around the world that are dealing with strife between their members. Pray that the Lord would guide them to a peaceful resolution that would strengthen their witness to the community.

28. for the Lutheran churches in Eurasia as they seek to minister to the refugees in their midst. Pray for safety for both the church workers and the refugees.

29. For all projects currently going on in LCMS partner church bodies, that each one would have the volunteers and resources necessary to carry out the work of the church as it shows mercy and provides physical and spiritual care for people around the world.

30. For safe travel between and within countries in each world region. Pray that pastors, missionaries, medical teams and all who travel to assist partner churches would be kept safe and healthy, that the Gospel might be proclaimed to the far corners of creation.

31. For all those still living in darkness, that the Gospel will be their light and life.

Congregations and individuals are invited to copy these pages for newsletters or other distribution. Download at lcmf.org/prayforus or call 888-842-5267 to request a copy.

MAIN STREET LIVING | SUNDAYS 9:00 – 10:00am | WFTC CHANNEL 29/9-2

Main Street Living is an LCMS program that features pastors from the WFTC, channel 29/9-2, viewer area. The first half hour is a reproduction of This is the Life. The second half hour is a modified Lutheran worship service, which is produced locally. Program information for April is below. To watch, go to mainstreetliving.com and select the “Twin Cities” tab.

- May 1: “No Place to Hide” features a pastor unable to find comfort as he faces the death of his wife.
- May 8: “Dead End” features a man who turns to drinking and another woman out of frustration with his life.
- May 15: “The Main Event” features a boxer who is hit by a car and becomes embittered until he meets a cheerful 8-year-old girl.
- May 22: “The Prisoners” features an elderly woman attacked and terrorized by a teenage gang.
- May 29: “A Dream of His Own” features a father and son at odds when a construction company plans to evict a Native American family.

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you plans to give you hope and a future.

'THE LIST CHANGES DAILY': HELP FOR UKRAINE
HOW CAN YOU HELP?

As the situation in Ukraine continues, the church prays for peace and for those in harm's way. We also strive to provide for those affected.

The Office of International Mission of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod is working with several Lutheran church bodies and missionaries in Europe to help our brothers and sisters in Christ in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Ukraine, Lutheran refugees and others affected by the violence.

Gifts to the LCMS, including Mission Central, are restricted to providing aid and assistance to persons displaced by the war in Ukraine.

The LCMS will issue grants to/through our Lutheran partners in the region best positioned to provide compassionate care in Christ's name to those fleeing the conflict.

The situation is developing, and we pledge to use every gift wisely to accomplish the greatest good possible in ways that deliver the Gospel as human needs are met.

To donate, go to lcms.org/givenow/displaced or call LCMS Donor Care at 888-930-4438 for more information.

*"Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
I was a stranger and you welcomed me."*
