

1 Peter Reading

Week One

(April 9-15)

Easter 2023

1 Peter 1:1-12

What do you know about Peter from the Scriptures? What would like to know more about Peter?

How is the Triune God (all three persons) active together in salvation according to Peter in 1 Peter 1-2?

How does one obtain this salvation according to Peter in this reading?

1 Peter Reading

Week One

(April 9-15)

Easter 2023

1 Peter 1:1-12

What do you know about Peter from the Scriptures? What would like to know more about Peter?

How is the Triune God (all three persons) active together in salvation according to Peter in 1 Peter 1-2?

How does one obtain this salvation according to Peter in this reading?

Peter begins his first letter by saying Christians have been born again to a living hope in the resurrection of Christ from the dead. Where are we as believers “born again?”

Peter begins his first letter by saying Christians have been born again to a living hope in the resurrection of Christ from the dead. Where are we as believers “born again?”

Compare 1 Peter 1:3 to Romans 6:1-11. How and where does the resurrection of Jesus connect to new birth?

Compare 1 Peter 1:3 to Romans 6:1-11. How and where does the resurrection of Jesus connect to new birth?

Compare 1 Peter 1:8-9 with John 20:24-29. These readings usually go together in the lectionary. Why? How do we know Jesus if we cannot see Him?

Compare 1 Peter 1:8-9 with John 20:24-29. These readings usually go together in the lectionary. Why? How do we know Jesus if we cannot see Him?

