

1 Peter Reading

Week Three

Easter 2023

(April 23-29)

1 Peter 2:13-25

Peter says Christians should be “subject to every human institution”? What does it mean to be “subject”? (vs. 13-14)

What “institutions” are you subject to? How can you live honorably under them?

How does Peter instruct us to live honorably as Christians under authority? How might we update the idea of “masters” today? (vs. 15-18)

1 Peter Reading

Week Three

Easter 2023

(April 23-29)

1 Peter 2:13-25

Peter says Christians should be “subject to every human institution”? What does it mean to be “subject”? (vs. 13-14)

What “institutions” are you subject to? How can you live honorably under them?

How does Peter instruct us to live honorably as Christians under authority? How might we update the idea of “masters” today? (vs. 15-18)

How should Christians suffer? How should Christians not suffer? (vs. 19-23)

How should Christians suffer? How should Christians not suffer? (vs. 19-23)

How did Jesus bear out sins, according to Peter? How does this affect our Christian lives? (v. 24)

How did Jesus bear out sins, according to Peter? How does this affect our Christian lives? (v. 24)

What image does Peter use to talk about Christ's care for us? (v. 25) How does this compare with this coming Sunday's Gospel reading? (see John 10:1-10)

What image does Peter use to talk about Christ's care for us? (v. 25) How does this compare with this coming Sunday's Gospel reading? (see John 10:1-10)

